About The Reverend Camille Thomas

The Rev. Camille Thomas is a Minister of the Progressive Universal Life Church, ordained January 21, 1997. Since then she has performed dozens of wedding ceremonies across many faiths. Rev. Camille considers her work as a minister to be a vocation through which she can bring peace, joy, comfort and contentment to what she believes is the most significant event in a couple's life. Her ministerial work focuses on remarriages, interfaith weddings and renewal of vows in a limitless variety of settings. She brings her extensive experience in communications, writing and public speaking to her work in preparing and officiating at customized ceremonies which are designed to reflect the couple's spiritual beliefs and unique personalities.

Rev. Camille was born and raised in New Jersey, where she received her bachelor's degree in Sociology and Journalism from Rutgers University. She is an award-winning writer and editor and a talented photo-journalist whose work has been published in national and regional magazines.

Answers to Frequently Asked Questions

Q. Why choose a non-denominational minister?

A. Many couples today do not have a church home, but still want to have a wedding that reflects their spiritual beliefs. A non-denominational minister can work together with the couple to create a ceremony that fulfills their wishes and addresses their individual spiritual and religious needs. A non-denominational minister offers couples a spiritual alternative to a civil ceremony.

Q. How much do you charge?

A. Fees start at $250 for a standard non-denominational ceremony in Ocean and Monmouth counties and $50 extra for a rehearsal. Fees for personalized services vary depending upon the wishes of the couple.

Q. Why do couples choose you over other officiants?

A. I believe that a wedding solely belongs to the bride and the groom. As long as their wishes don't violate local, state or federal laws, I will leave the wedding plans to the couple's discretion. You don't have to ask for permission to have something in your wedding. All traditions and religious customs are equally welcome. This is your day. Let's do it your way.
